

The image shows a detailed Gantt chart for a project, titled "Сводный календарный план работ" (Summary calendar plan of work). The chart spans from January 1, 2024, to December 31, 2024. The vertical axis lists various tasks, and the horizontal axis represents time in months and days. The chart is color-coded: red for "Не выполнено" (Not completed), green for "Выполнено" (Completed), and yellow for "В процессе" (In progress). The chart is organized into columns for each month, with sub-columns for specific dates. A legend at the bottom left explains the color coding and task status. The right side of the chart shows a summary of tasks completed by month.
